

Smuggling of Arms Big Trade in Austria

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
VIENNA, Sept. 2.—Gunrunning and arms smuggling has become a bigger trade in Austria than it was on the Mexican frontier in Villa's palmiest days.

The country is full of military material while Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia are munitions hungry and the result is to make a market tempting that the risks are disregarded. If the Socialist organs are to be credited, however, at least some of the trade is done under the auspices of certain enterprising governments as well as the conservative element of the Austrian government.

Within the last few days the police made known that they had discovered an organization for running military material into Hungary and made two arrests. One of the men was an employee of the Wienerberger munitions factory, a government plant. Workmen's councils have a great organization and are constantly on the watch for railway shipment of arms and cartridges, but in our government office it was admitted that in every carload detected and stopped none got away over the frontier.

Frederick Adler, the Socialist leader, has declared that even quantities of arms were being smuggled from the country and it was the duty of the workmen to find a way to stop it.

The allied control commission has issued an order prohibiting the further sale of government-owned arms or munitions or that in possession of the private concerns organized in trade in demobilized material. Many of these concerns were made up of the members of the official demobilization commissions who sold to themselves.

There seems little doubt now that a recent raid on the Furstenfeld arsenal was the work of former Austrian officers now in the Austrian legion of the Hungarian army, aided by Hungarian officers. A late raid on the Hartberg arsenal seems to have been done by neighboring peasants. They are said to have been inspired by the threat of the workmen to raid the farms in that

FOCH KNEELS AT GRAVE OF SON

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
PARIS, Sept. 2.—Shortly after midnight the funeral of Marshal Foch was held in the Knights of Columbus, a church which Marshal Foch was the principal speaker, came to an end, and the tired knights and other guests hurried to bed. Not so Marshal Foch.

Accompanied by a single aide-de-camp, he was seen to leave the hotel about 4 o'clock and enter a long, green military automobile.

"Situation must be nothing worse in Holland," says one aide who saw the departure of the marshal, and else he should not travel to Paris by night."

Few knew that Marshal Foch was making a last pilgrimage to Louvain, there to kneel upon the grave of his son killed in action during the campaign in the early days of the war. But, still, he is back in Paris and next day must not spare the time required by day.

FOCH FINALLY FINDS LODGING IN PARIS

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
PARIS, Sept. 2.—The government has solved for Marshal Foch the problem of finding lodgings in Paris which has given the marshal a great deal of trouble. The Hotel de Sens, 135 Rue de Grenelle, has been placed at his disposal as a residence. This is one block away from the French war office.

AMERICAN JOCKEY LOSES POPULARITY

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
DRAUVILLE, Sept. 1.—French track followers have been criticizing the riding of Frank O'Neill, of St. Louis, lately. O'Neill, with the Vanderbilt horses, was leading the jockeys of the French turf by a wide margin the middle of July, having practically double the number of winning mounts of Bellhouse, his closest opponent. Lately O'Neill seems to have had an unlucky spell and winners have been few in his column.

BUCKHECHT Dress Shoes

Buckhecht Fine Shoes are priced $8.50 to $14

All other styles were forgotten when we designed our "brogue" No. 440, but reputation wasn't. There is a quality beneath the fancy stitching, the ornate perforating, the winged tips, the brass eyelets, the swaggy girth gait, that is worthy of our whole sixty years of shoe making. And our trade-marked solid sole supports the shoe's claim to ruggedness.

Tell your dealer doesn't show them and we will endeavor to have you supplied.
